TIPS FOR FREE TIME IN PRAGUE (1/2)

1) Tango argentino – Wednesday's milonga in Café Jedna

Go and see how tango argentino is danced in Prague. You can sit and drink a glass of wine watching people dancing, or join the dancers (take your dancing shoes with you). Each Wednesday, 9 p.m. – 12 a.m., free entry (50 CZK for dancers).

Info: <https://www.facebook.com/milonga.cafe.jedna/>

Address: Café Jedna, Veletržní palác, Dukelských hrdinů, Prague 7; take tram #12 from Malostranské náměstí, go to Strossmayerovo náměstí and walk (a couple of minutes) north along the street Dukelských hrdinů. You will see Café Jedna on the ground floor of a glass building on your left side.

2) Swans and ducks at the river bank

Just after the sunset, see hundreds of swans and ducks gathered at the river bank not far from the training school venue. From the north end of Cihelná street, go to the right towards the river (follow the noise made by the birds). Bring some food for them. Nice view at Charles Bridge.

3) Ice skating

Do you like or do you want to try ice skating? Visit the open skating rink at Vítězné náměstí (metro station Dejvická (green line), or tram stop Dejvická (tram #20 from Malostranské náměstí)). Free

Welcome!
