Projects:

Until 2009: annotation of Prague English Dependency Treebank (PEDT), annotation of specific phenomena (rhematizers, discourse connectives)

Current: Annotation of discourse structure on PDT (Czech texts, based on tectogrammatrics)

- Together with: Eva Hajičová, Šárka Zikánová, Jirka Mírovský, Pavlína Jínová
- Cooperation with UPenn and prof. Aravind Joshi's team (KONTAKT project)
- Annotators: Pavlína Jínová, Jana Zdeňková, Veronika Pavlíková, Helena Filipová, Jana Pěňčíková, Magda Rysová
- Till August 2010 – 43,4% of the treebank annotated (for explicit discourse connectives and their relations)
- spring 2011: a discourse workshop planned in Prague (KONTAKT project), primarily for Penn and Prague students, also for anaphora researchers – we will be looking for any new work in this field, for foreign guests (apart from Penn people), for organizing support among students...

Dissertation topic: The concept of discourse-level description for the PDT

Teaching: An optional course for FF UK students of Czech language and linguistics (spring 2010)

Very current: Maternal leave August 2010 – February 2011 ☺
